HISTORICAL SKETCH.

This town was settled in 1741 or 1742. A part of the settlers came from Londonderry, most of whom were Presbyterians. The remainder were from various places, and were of the "standing order," or Congregationalists.

The charter of the town was granted 16 June, 1761. At the first annual town meeting, March, 1762, £100 was voted for preaching. Various sums, ranging from £300, "old tenor," to £9, were appropriated from year to year for this purpose, until the formation of a church and the settlement of a pastor.

All religious services, for many years, were held in barns; usually in those belonging to Thomas or James Karr, or John Smith.

The Congregational church was organized 30 October, 1771. The records for the first ten years were destroyed by fire many years ago, so it is impossible to give its strength during this period. The names of eighteen members, only, have been found, these having been referred to in the records subsequent to 1781.

In the early part of 1772, a Presbyterian church was organized. The Presbyterians had more or less preaching every year in private houses and barns, but never had a house of worship or a settled pastor.

A union was effected of these two organizations 29 December, 1801, by which the church was to be known as the Presbyterian-Congregational church of Goffstown. Six elders were appointed — three from each denomination. The government was to be according to the Congregational polity, with the right of appeal to Presbytery or mutual council, as the parties might elect.

HOUSES OF WORSHIP.

The first meeting-house, which was erected by the town after a long and bitter struggle, stood upon the common at the Center. It was raised 27 April, 1768, but was not completed for many years, though used as soon as boarded and shingled. It was torn down in 1869.

The second meeting-house was erected by subscription or shares, in 1815 and 1816, at a cost of $5,000. It stood very near the present site of S. M. Christie's house in the West village. It was a large building, with galleries. Services were held in it two thirds of the time, most of the other third being at the Center, till it was taken down in 1845.

The third house of worship was erected at the Center in 1838. The house built by the town had become very uncomfortable, and a new one was needed. But the majority of the church-going people could worship more conveniently at the West village, so the services at the Center were finally abandoned, and the house was sold to parties by whom the Methodist church was formed, which organization now occupy the house.

The present church edifice was build in 1845. It cost about $2,500. In 1869 its capacity was increased nearly one half, at an expense of $1200.

A chapel, for the social meetings of the church, was erected in 1875, at a cost of about $2,750.

REVIVALS.

A quiet work of grace was enjoyed under the labors of Mr. Morrill in 1802, resulting, perhaps, from the union of the two churches.

In the spring and summer of 1819 a very remarkable revival was enjoyed, under the preaching of Rev. Abel Manning. As a result, seventy or more were added to the church.

The ministry of Mr. Wood was blessed with almost a continuous revival. His labors closed and Mr. Stowell's commenced in the midst of a spiritual harvest, which continued for several months, and was followed by another in 1835.

During the ministry of Mr. Willey there were several periods when the church was revived, and there were a number of conversions; especially in 1847, in connection with a concert of prayer observed by the members of the church in their own dwellings one hour before light on Sabbath mornings, and also another in the winter of 1850-1.

Mr. Ray's labors were followed by refreshings from the presence of the Lord, which greatly cheered desponding hearts.

As one result of the revival in 1875, sixty-five were added to the church by profession.

As there have been times of revival, so there have been periods of darkness, but out of all these difficulties the Lord has brought us.

The first notice we have of a prayer-meeting was in 1826. This was a temporary arrangement, only. In 1838, a monthly prayer-meeting was established, which was changed to a weekly meeting in 1844.

Sabbath Schools were established in several of the school-houses of the town in 1821, but the social study of the Bible could not have become a part of the services of the sanctuary until many years after.

The Religious Union Society for the support of Congregational worship was organized in 1816.

PRINCIPLES AND REGULATIONS.

ADOPTED MAY 10, 1877.

I. NAME.

The name of this church shall be THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF CHRIST IN GOFFSTOWN.

II. CONFESSION OF FAITH.

1. Receiving the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament as the Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice, we confess our faith in the one living and true God, revealed as the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, a Being possessed of every possible perfection, infinite in power, wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness and truth.

2. We believe in the universal sinfulness and ruin of our race; since "By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned."

3. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, having taken upon himself our nature, has, by his obedience, sufferings and death, provided a way of salvation for all mankind; and that, through faith in his name, whosoever will may be saved.

4. We believe in the necessity of the new birth, and that it is a moral change, produced by the Holy Spirit operating on the mind through the truth; and that all who are thus regenerated are "kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation."

5. We believe that that faith alone which manifests itself in a Christian life, whose rule is continual resistance to sin and obedience to the commandments of God, is the faith that unites to Christ and embraces the promises.

6. We believe that the Christian Sabbath, the Ministry of the Word, the Visible Church, and the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, are divinely appointed, and are binding on the followers of Christ until his coming.

7. We believe that there is a day appointed, in which God will raise the dead, and judge the world; that the wicked "shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal."

8. We accord, substantially, with the Declaration of Faith made by the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States in 1865.

We, as a church, receive and profess the foregoing articles of faith. As such, we expect that the Pastor and other officers of the church will assent to them, and that they will be the constitutional ground for the administration of the church. We also expect that the teaching of the pulpit will conform to them, that they will be the basis for the examination of candidates for admission to the church, and that they will be the substantial expression of the faith of the members.

III. GOVERNMENT.

1. This church shall be an independent body, having within itself all necessary powers of government and discipline; recognizing the expediency and privilege of seeking the advice of other Christian churches, according to established Congregational principles, but amenable to no authority except that of the Head of the church, which is Christ.

2. All members of the church in good standing are entitled to an equal right in voting upon any measure that may come before the church.

IV. MEMBERSHIP.

1. The qualifications for admission to this church are credible evidence of repentance of sin, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and assent to the Confession of Faith and Covenant, as laid down in the Form for Admission of Members.

2. Persons who desire admission to this church on profession of their faith shall be examined by the Standing Committee of the church, as to their doctrinal sentiments and personal piety; and, if approved by the Committee, their names shall be presented to the church. If approved by the church, they shall be propounded at least one week before admission. This article shall not be construed to prevent any member of the church from being present at the examination of candidates, or making suggestions with regard to them to the Standing Committee.

3. Members of other Christian churches will be received to membership by vote of the church, on presenting proper letters of dismission and recommendation, and by giving assent to our Covenant. It is expected that all such persons will present their letters within one year after coming among us, unless there be valid reasons for delay.

4. Members of this church making change of residence or worship, are expected to request letters of dismission to some other church, and the neglect to do this for a year, without good reasons offered therefor, may be regarded as sufficient ground for censure. If letters are not applied for within three years, and the persons cannot be reached for purposes of Christian labor and discipline, the names of such absent members shall no longer be reported by the church, or regarded as members, but shall be borne upon a separate roll, and they shall not be reinstated except after due explanation and a vote of the church.

V. CHILDREN OF THE CHURCH.

Recognizing the right of individual judgment, we receive into fellowship of this church persons who may dissent from us on the subject of Infant Baptism. At the same time we hold that the covenant of God extends not only to believers but to their children; and hence that it is the privilege and duty of Christian parents to accept this covenant by dedicating their children to God in Baptism, and that children so dedicated are brought into very close relations to the church, in that, by covenant obligation, they are the special subject of religious influence, culture and prayer.

VI. OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

1. The permanent officers of this church shall be a Pastor and two or more Deacons. The other officers shall be a Clerk and a Treasurer, also a Standing Committee of seven, of whom the Pastor and Deacons shall be a part.

2. All officers shall be elected by ballot, and all, except the Pastor and Deacons, annually and without public nomination, unless a committee shall be appointed for that purpose. Vacancies may be filled at any regular meeting.

3. The Pastor, who shall assent to the Principles and Regulations, and who, as soon as practicable after his installation, shall become a member of the church, shall have control of the pulpit and the exercises of public and social worship, shall preach the Word and administer the Sacraments, preside in the meetings of the church, and take the spiritual oversight of the flock.

In the settlement of a Pastor the church shall act by an Ecclesiastical Council, called in the usual manner; and such a Council shall be mutually called by the Pastor and the church, to act upon the question of his dismissal, whenever the Pastor shall desire it, or the church shall so vote in a meeting, notified on the preceding Sabbath for that special purpose.

4. The Deacons shall provide for, and aid the Pastor in administering the Lord's Supper, take the oversight of poor members needing relief, and assist the Pastor in the spiritual care of the congregation.

5. The Clerk shall make a faithful record of the business transactions of the church, keep a register of the members, with the date and manner of their reception and removal; the names of all persons baptized, whether infants or adults; issue letters of dismission voted by the church, and attend to such other duties as usually pertain to that office.

6. The Treasurer shall receive the funds of the church; and shall see that the collections authorized by the church are taken up. He shall receive and properly forward the benevolent contributions of the church, and shall make an annual report to the church.

7. The Standing Committee shall examine all candidates for admission to the church, consult and advise with the Pastor in regard to church work, and consider all matters pertaining to the interests of Religion in the place.

VII. DISCIPLINE.

1. The rule of discipline laid down in Matt. 18 : 15-17, Rom. 16 : 17, 1 Cor. 5 : 11, 13, Titus, 3 : 10, 11, and 2 Thes. 3 : 6, 14, 15 shall be our general guide.

2. In private offences, the offended one is, by a fraternal, prayerful conference, to seek a spiritual healing, and so to "gain the brother." Failing in this, let him "take one or two more," and again strive to win him back, so as to avoid the necessity of a church trial.

3. In all cases of breach of covenant, public offence and scandal, inasmuch as every member suffers in the wrong done to the church, every member cognizant of the same shall be responsible for laboring, in the spirit of Christ, to bring the offender to repentance, or, in the failure of success, for communicating the case to the church.

4. Should any member be brought before the church for trial, he shall previously be furnished with a written statement of charges preferred against him, and of the time and place of trial.

5. The form of exclusion may not be in all cases the same. In some it may be excommunication ; in others a suspension from church privileges ; and in others, simple withdrawal of watch and care.

6. No vote of censure shall be valid, except it be approved by a majority of the members present at a regular meeting.

7. In all cases of discipline, it is to be understood that the spiritual reformation of the offender is the end in view, and so, on evidence of repentance, and a satisfactory confession, such person shall be restored to good standing by vote of the church.

VIII. MEETINGS.

1. The annual meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday in January, when the annual reports shall be rendered, and the regular elections made.
2. Business may be transacted at any regular or special meeting of the church, called from the pulpit.
3. Meetings for public worship shall be held upon the Sabbath, and a weekly prayer and conference meeting on such evening as may be appointed by the church. Other religious meetings may be held at the discretion of the church or pastor.
4. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall usually be administered on the first Sabbath of January, March, May, July, September and November.

IX. CONTRIBUTIONS.

Contributions shall be solicited in the congregation for the leading objects of Christian beneficence, the poor of the church and the expenses of the church, according to a schedule adopted by the church from time to time.

X. AMENDMENTS AND BY-LAWS.

1. The foregoing Principles and Regulations may be altered, by a two thirds vote of those present at a meeting of which due notice shall be given on the preceding Sabbath, with a statement of the proposed alteration, provided the change does not infringe upon the doctrines or organic principles of this church. All rules heretofore enacted, inconsistent with the preceding, are hereby repealed.
2. By-Laws may be enacted at any business meeting.

FORM OF ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

The Minister will begin by saying :

The following persons, having given satisfactory evidence of Christian character, are now to be received to the membership of this church.

The list of names being read, the Minister shall say :

JESUS SAITH :

“If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.”

“Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me : for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

“And the Spirit and the bride say, come. And let him that heareth say, come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

“Whosoever, therefore, shall confess me before men, him will I confess, also, before my Father which is in heaven.

Those uniting on profession will arise, and the Minister will address them as follows :

DEARLY BELOVED :

Rejoicing in the knowledge of the forgiveness of sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, you have come to confess Him before men, and publicly to dedicate yourself to God. You have learned that before God all men are guilty, and that it is impossible for any to obtain salvation through their own righteousness ; you have accepted the redemption purchased for you by Jesus Christ, and the promise of your justification by faith ; and you believe that the Holy Spirit has wrought in you that change of heart by which you are enabled to put your trust for salvation wholly in Christ, and to enter upon a new life.

Believing that the Saviour has called you into his kingdom, and has appointed you work to do, that He may bestow upon you more abundant blessings, you desire, in grateful obedience, to join in the fellowship of His church, and to consecrate yourself to His service.

In testimony that this is a true statement of your belief and desire, you will now join with me in the following

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

I believe in God the Father, Maker of all things ; in His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and King ; in the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, ever present in the church to renew and sanctify the soul.

I believe in the sinfulness of our race, and the necessity of renewal by the Holy Spirit ; in the death of our Lord Jesus Christ for our sins ; in His resurrection from the dead ; His ascension, mediation and intercession ; in His coming again to judge the quick and the dead, and to receive His followers to the glory of His Kindgom.

I believe in the Holy Scriptures as the Word of God ; in the Church, the body of Christ ; in the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper ; in the communion of the Saints ; in the resurrection of the dead, and in the life of the world to come.

To those baptized in infancy, the Minister will say :

You, who in childhood were dedicated to God in Baptism by believing parents, do now accept their act, with the obligations and privileges it involves, as your own, and declare your belief that the regeneration thereby symbolized has been wrought in you by the Holy Ghost.

To those who have not been baptized, the Minister will say :

You who believe that your hearts have been renewed by the Holy Ghost, but who never have received the outward seal of the covenant, will now, upon this confession of your faith, receive the ordinance of baptism.

Baptism administered to such as have not received it.

The Minister will address those admitted by letter as follows :

(Those uniting by letter will rise.)

BELOVED FRIENDS :

You have been recommended to our communion by the churches to which you have belonged, in the love of a common Master. We welcome you to our joys and labors, trusting you will both receive comfort and strength, and impart the same to us.

The Minister will then say :

In the presence of God and this assembly, you (who unite with us by profession or letter) do now freely and cordially enter with us into

COVENANT.

Humbly confessing and forsaking your sins, and believing on the Lord Jesus with all your heart, you do now renounce the dominion of the world over you, and consecrate yourselves to the service of God, receiving His Word as the rule of life. You solemnly covenant to study the peace, purity and edification of this church ; to attend its services, and support its worship and ordinances ; to love and watch over its members as your brethren and sisters ; to receive from them, with a humble, teachable spirit, all needful care and admonition ; to consecrate your means to the Lord ; and to honor the Lord as you may be able by an upright life.

They bow assent. The Minister says :

We then, the members of this church,

(The members rise.)

affectionately receive you to our communion. We welcome you, in the name of Christ, to a part with us in the blessings of His covenant. As co-workers in His service and fellow soldiers of the cross, we pledge you our abiding sympathy, counsel, encouragement, love and prayers.

In token of our confidence and sincerity, take this hand of fellowship, and remember the word which the Scriptures saith.

Here the Minister shall take each new member by the hand, in turn, repeating to each some appropriate passage of Scripture.

The church being seated, the Minister will say :

And now, beloved in the Lord, ye are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone.

For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man ; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith ; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend, with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height ; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

The Lord bless you and keep you : the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you : the Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

FORM FOR THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

“And Jesus took a child and set him in the midst of them : and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, Verily, I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name, receiveth me ; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.”

“For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.”

“Then were there brought unto him little children, that he would put his hands on them and pray. But when his disciples saw, they rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not : for of such is the kingdom of God : Verily, I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein. And he took them up in his arms and put his hands upon them and blest them.”

The Minister shall address the parents as follows :

In presenting this child for baptism, you profess your faith in the covenant made by God with Abraham, ratified by Christ, and perpetuated under the Christian dispensation. As Abraham, the father of the faithful, entered into covenant with God, and his seed after him, so do you now covenant with Him in the dedication of this child to His service. You hereby engage to be faithful to your parental relations ; to pray for and with this child ; to instruct him (her) in the doctrines and duties of our holy religion ; to set an example of Godliness before him (her) ; and to endeavor by all the means of divine appointment, relying upon the gracious influences of the Holy Spirit, to prepare him (her) for full admission to the visible church on earth, and the church triumphant in heaven.

Do you thus promise?

The Minister shall baptize the child, using only Christian names, and saying:

———, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which the Minister shall offer a short prayer.

† Errors will, doubtless, be discovered in this list, though great pains have been taken to make it as nearly perfect as possible. Family records, traditions and tombstones have been the only available sources of information with regard to almost all, except the bare family name. All errors detected should be reported to the Pastor or Clerk.

† The names from 1 to 18, inclusive, are referred to in the Records from 1781 to 1800 as members, and these are all that can be ascertained as joining previous to the former date. There were, probably, as many or more female members.
